

If That's What You Call Love

Kathy Mattea

I can't believe she had the nerve
To show her face again
I can't believe she got to you
And now you're givin' in

Remember how she walked away
For reasons she could not explain?
Now she says she's changed her mind
And wants you back after all this time

If that's what she calls lovin' you
If that's the best that she can do
Darlin', I can promise you
It's not what you're worthy of

Is that what you call livin' proof
Is that what you call a dream come true
Darlin', you're not dreamin' big enough
If that's what you call love

After all she put you through
She expects you to pretend
That she has never lied to you
And she never would again

Now that her world has fallen through
She figures she'll just fall back on you
She needs you now but don't be confused
She only wants what she can use

If that's what she calls lovin' you
If that's the best that she can do
Darlin', I can promise you
It's not what you're worthy of

Is that what you call livin' proof
Is that what you call a dream come true
Darlin', you're not dreamin' big enough
If that's what you call love

Is that what you call livin' proof
Is that what you call a dream come true
Darlin', you're not dreamin' big enough
If that's what you call love
