I'm not gonna give up this time
I'm gonna keep on,
Even when I'm not strong

My future's shining right in front of me And I'm looking,
I'm gonna find my dream

I'm not leaving behind my old life,
I just know who I am,
And I'm gonna shine

So just try and stop me this time You can't hold me back Oh, I'm as good as gone this time.

My star is racing in front of me I gotta catch it Before it loses me

And now I've got my old guitar And I'm singing My rear-view mirror breaks my heart.

The hardest part about leaving Is knowing that it's a one-way trip And I'm going

So just try to stop me this time You can't hold me back Oh, I'm as good as gone this time.

And I'm done with hoping Cause dreams are only What you make of them

So just try and stop me this time You can't hold me back Oh, I'm as good as gone this time.

My future's shining right in front of me And I'm looking,
I'm gonna find my dream.
