Jealousy

Katie Armiger

Bless your heart You're the sweetest thing All done up and no diamond ring You're lookin' hard to meet your match And what you're going down ain't hard to catch You best think twice 'Cause that man you've been making eyes at Has got my name across his heart Back away slowly And no one gets hurt Anyone who knows me Knows when I'm in red I'm seein' green And I can't help it I just get mean When it comes over me Jealousy Let me tell a tale of lies and sin About a girl I thought was my best friend She whispered soft in my man's ear But as love would have it She disappeared To this day Her family hopes and prays that She'll turn up again somewhere Back away slowly And no one gets hurt Anyone who knows me Knows when I'm in red I'm seein' green And I can't help it I just get mean When it comes over me Jealousy Back away slowly And no one gets hurt Anyone who knows me Knows when I'm in red I'm seein' green And I can't help it I just get mean When it comes over me When it comes over me Jealousy
