

Ships In The Night

Katie Costello

I'm finding farewell is the word I won't say, at the risk of being what it is
I'm finding so long is what took so long to finally utter with strength

I can't be what I need
And I can't treat you right
Nothing lasts forever
But this, my friend, won't pass in the night
And this, my friend, is still a goodbye

You're so far away, I don't know what that means; It's finally dawned upon me
I couldn't hold on to what's moving on; We've passed like ships in the night

I can't be what I need
And I can't treat you right
Nothing lasts forever
But this, my friend, won't pass in the night
And this, my friend, is still a goodbye

I will haunt you, haunt you
I will never feel you gone

I can't be what I need
And I can't treat you right
Nothing lasts forever
But this, my friend, won't pass in the night
And this, my friend, is still a goodbye

And I can't treat you right
Nothing lasts forever
But this, my friend, won't pass in the night
And this, my friend, is still a goodbye
