

I Hurt Too

Katie Herzig

When you're weary
And haunted
And your life is not what you wanted
When you're trying so hard to find it

When the lies speak the loudest
When your friends are starting to leave
When you're broken by people like me

I hurt too, I hurt too

When an ocean sits right between us
There is no sign that we'll ever cross
You should know now that I feel the loss

I hurt too, I hurt too

Even though you are drowning in valley's of echoes
I believe there is peace in those hills up ahead
You will climb 'til you find places you'll never let go
And I will also be here praying just like I said

I hurt too, I hurt too
