

Weightless

Katie Herzig

Green, the color of the trees that grow while I am barely breathing

Entangled in hate and love

I can't tell if I am numb or feeling

'Cause I am broken hearted and you are beautiful

I am undecided and you are weightless

Sun, behind the blinds but I can't open what I can't find

Lies that taste so sweet

I'm not craving anything I need

I am broken hearted and you are beautiful

I am undecided and you are weightless
