

Mirror

Katra

Can you
See those eyes
Betrayal and lies

Staring at me
Forcing to scream

Is this a dream
Nightmare I mean

I cannot withdraw
I'm gonna fall
Out of reach
If what I see face to face,
is my pure reality

Is there more more to be seen
In the mirror than just me
Is there more more to be seen
Trough my sin of vanity

What have I become
Oh, how to come undone
Give me a gun

It haunts me every time
No way to hide
It's there inside

Tearing my heart trulky apart
I see the scars
They will remind

I'm gonna fall
Out of reach
If what I see face to face,
is my pure reality

Is there more more to be seen
In the mirror than just me
Is there more more to be seen
Trough my sin of vanity

What have I become
Oh, how to come undone
Give me a gun

More more to be seen
In the mirror than just me
Is there more more to be seen
Trough my sin of vanity

What have I become
Oh, how to come undone
Give me a gun
