Can you See those eyes Betrayal and lies

Staring at me Forcing to scream

Is this a dream Nightmare I mean

I cannot withdraw
I'm gonna fall
Out of reach
If what I see face to face,
is my pure reality

Is there more more to be seen In the mirror than just me Is there more more to be seen Trough my sin of vanity

What have I become Oh, how to come undone Give me a gun

It haunts me every time
No way to hide
It's there inside

Tearing my heart trulky apart I see the scars
They will remind

I'm gonna fall
Out of reach
If what I see face to face,
is my pure reality

Is there more more to be seen In the mirror than just me Is there more more to be seen Trough my sin of vanity

What have I become Oh, how to come undone Give me a gun

More more to be seen
In the mirror than just me
Is there more more to be seen
Trough my sin of vanity

What have I become Oh, how to come undone Give me a gun Tištěno z www.txp.cz
