

Dark Delirium

Katy B

You hide away from it all
I lay my cards on the table
I think I'm feeling the fall, mind's gone crazy
I run whenever you call
Try stopping now, I'm not able
I think I'm feeling before you can save me

Now it's taken hold
Why you blowing so hot and cold?
Deeper down we roll
Oh, I'm feeling like my soul has been sold

Need someone to take me from
All of this, what I've become
I've no sense of right or wrong
Need someone to take me from this dark delirium
But you take me deeper
This dark delirium
But you take me deeper
This dark delirium
But you take me deeper
This dark delirium
But you take me deeper

Act up the day like I'm fine
Inside I'm crumbling, I'm fading
Are you just wasting my time? Stop playing
You draw the perfect design, no way I'll ever escape it
I'm 'bout to cross the borderline

Now it's taken hold
Why you blowing so hot and cold?
Deeper down we roll
Oh, I'm feeling like my soul has been sold

Need someone to take me from
All of this, what I've become
I've no sense of right or wrong
Need someone to take me from this dark delirium
But you take me deeper
This dark delirium
But you take me deeper
This dark delirium
But you take me deeper
This dark delirium
But you take me deeper

Need someone to take me from
All of this, what I've become
I've no sense of right or wrong
Need someone to take me from this dark delirium
But you take me deeper
This dark delirium
But you take me deeper
This dark delirium
But you take me deeper
This dark delirium

But you take me deeper
