

Jupiter

Katy McAllister

Your heart is the sun and the leaves are your soul blowing, blowing through clouds, which are really just your dreams at night Your eyes are the stars your hand is Mars holding, holding me out to fly and I no longer have this great fear of heights, fear of heights and Jupiter has got nothing on you the universe does no justice to just what you do to me it's like breaking but waking the inside of me and the milky way is but only a galaxy shine through me like the moon baby Jupiter's got nothing on you

Suddenly I'm lost (ohh) in this dark sky (dark sky) I'm no longer dreaming of blue skies I'm wrapped up in the night it's like violins play all around bittersweet twinkling on reality if I can't find my way out I don't mind, I don't mind

Cause Jupiter has got nothing on you
the universe does no justice to just what you do to me
ohh

Lift me up high let me be with the sky gracefully rise slow dancing on Venus I'll know your mine when I'm drifting around the rings of Saturn Jupiter, Jupiter, the universe does no justice to just what you do to me it's like breaking me, waking me and the milky way is but only a galaxy

shine through me like the moon baby Jupiter's got nothing on you
ohh
