

Piercing

Katy Perry

Living in fear
Is not what you had
In mind for me
But holding to you
Is so hard
I cling to what I see

R: In a world where my emotions
Seem to rule my every move
They will challenge my devotion
To seek and know the truth

R1: You're piercing me
This self will bleed
You're killing all
Of my securities
Lord, help me see the reality
That all I'll ever need is You

Here in this haze a distant light
Seems to draw me near
But in the shadow of my doubt
My faith just disappears

R: In a world where my emotions...

R1: You're piercing me... (3x)
