Living in fear
Is not what you had
In mind for me
But holding to you
Is so hard
I cling to what I see

- R: In a world where my emotions
  Seem to rule my every move
  They will challenge my devotion
  To seek and know the truth
- R1: You're piercing me
  This self will bleed
  You're killing all
  Of my securities
  Lord, help me see the reality
  That all I'll ever need is You

Here in this haze a distant light Seems to draw me near But in the shadow of my doubt My faith just disappears

R: In a world where my emotions...

R1: You're piercing me... (3x)
