

Self Inflicted

Katy Perry

1. Remember when I dove into the ground
And I got a bloody knee under my skin
A scar from wiping out
It brings back the memories
Every bone's been broken
But my heart is still wide open

R: I can't stop, don't care if I lose
Baby, you are the weapon I choose
These wounds are self-inflicted
And I'm going down in flames for you
Baby, you are the weapon I choose
These wounds are self-inflicted
One more thing I'm addicted to
2. With each scar there's a map that tells a story
What a souvenir of young love's like Jumpin out an airplane right in a tidal wave of emotion
My heart rips me wide open

R: I can't stop...

And I, cover up these scars

(we make up, then we break up)
And I, cant stop seeing stars
(I'm so knocked out whenever you're around)

R: I can't stop... (2x)

Ooh I can't stop, no I can't stop
Oh I'm going out in flames
Oh I'm going down in flames
Oh
Baby you are the weapon I choose
Baby you are the weapon I choose...
