Simple

You're such a poet I wish I could be Wesley Willis My words would flow like honey Sweet and laid on thick You're so edgy You don't even need a rhyming dictionary I wipe my hands on your jeans Cause they are more distressed So they say you've got a CD And they claim you can barely read But you say don't bother me with all of your reality

But it could be so simple (you were thinking) Life should be that simple (Who would have thought it) I wish it were just so simple (don't know what you were thinking) But the point's been missed You've made a mess Who would have guessed That it's as simple as it seems

So what, you're a genius But you've got a lot to learn Like the time you lost your apartment Cause you bought too much Vuitton You park in a loading zone You sleep with the lights all on You cross your i's and dot your t's All it goes to show

That it could be so simple (you were thinking) Life should be that simple (Who would have thought it) I wish it were just that simple (don't know what you were thinking) The point's been missed We've made a mess Who would have guessed That it's as simple as it seems

I'm not saying that it's a piece of cake Just take a moment to reevaluate The possibilities The situations The opportunities That are waiting Oh, the possibilities Oh, I

It could, it could be that simple (you were thinking) Life should be that simple (Who would have thought it) I wish it were just so simple (don't know what you were thinking)
You're in a haze
It's just a phase
You know this maze
Is as simple as it seems

We could talk all day About your eccentricities What I mean to say Oh, is that I need you listen please And focus on life's simplicities So don't be afraid to strip it away Cause at the end of the day It's still as simple as it seems

It is all so simple Just deal with it
