Catch My Fall

Katy Rose

I wonder why it always feels like rain My life is like some cheap champagne The answers don't always seem to fit My glass is full, but it tastes like shit

I need a quick decision And a cheap reward I'm in my last revision Hey- hey-hey-hey

So I'll cry just a little bit longer And I'll stay two seconds more And I'll try to be stronger And I'll see if you catch my fall

I can't tell if what I did was wrong Still you followed me like a sing-along I can't tell if what I did was right But you let me go like your sisters kite

I need a quick decision And a cheap reward I'm in my last revision Hey-hey-hey-hey

So I'll cry just a little bit longer And I'll stay two seconds more And I'll try to be stronger And I'll see if you catch my fall

Yea yea yeaaaaa Yea yea yeaaaaaa Yea yea yeaaaaaaaaaaaa

I've made my last decision And got some cheap reward I need no man's premision

So I'll cry just a little bit longer And I'll stay two seconds more And I'll try to be stronger And I'll see if you catch my fall If you catch my fall Catch my fall Ya cath my fall Fall
