

I've Changed My Mind A Thousand Times

Kay Starr

(Thousand, thousand, thousand times)

I've changed my mind a thousand times
But you're still the only one for me

I've told myself, this is wrong
But my heart seems to know where I belong

I've given up
I've been pounded out
When our romance was all it seemed
I've changed my mind a thousand times
But you're still the only thrill
The only one who every will
Please me

The only...
The only one for me
(Doo wop, doo wop)

I've changed my mind a thousand times
But you're still the only thrill
The only one who every will
The only...
The only one for me
