

Ballad For A Lost Friend

Kayak

There's much left to say
You're gone you never planned to stay
Anyway, don't deny it

No need to come again
You'd show you still don't understand
It's a dream and it's ending

I'd rather see you
I'd have you near
Than being alone tonight

Don't want to see
But love it's better so
Don't worry I'll be alright
