

Hope For A Life

Kayak

Nowadays it's so hard to be straight and sincere Show me you are, show me you're not what you make me
Think of you
Living on the battlefield between love and fear
So many things, so many people inside are above you

In fact there's no difference between dope and the pope
Which I expect, will be neglected by many progressive
What at last keeps men alive, it's only the hope
Hope for a life, hope for a life without ruling
Aggressive
