

Love Lies

Kayak

I still remember the look in your eye
And how you used to tell me
That you'd say goodbye

Love lies
All for a reason
Love lies waiting for you
Love lies
Sweeter than words I believed to be true

I still remember the places we went
And how you used to tell me
That he'd understand

Love lies
All for a reason
Love lies waiting for you
Love lies
Sweeter than words I believed to be true

Gave you all my love but you let me on babe
Gave you all my heart, but you made me learn
Gave you all I had, getting just a promise in return

Feeling like a fool, like a silly dreamer
Should've read the signs, but I never did
Now you turn me down and you say you're sorry
And that's it

But baby I know
I've gotta let go

You may remember the things that I
And how I used to tell you, you were all that I had

Love lies
All for a reason
Love lies waiting for you
Love lies
Sweeter than words I believed to be true
