

Grim Reaper

Keaton Simons

You'll never see me coming

Alllllright

It's too late you can't stop now

Alllllright

I've got your name in my pocket

Alllllright

You started now you can't stop it

Alllllright

We meet up the edge of the city

Alllllright

Leave all your precious days behind

Alllllright

You don't know how they'll find you

Alllllright

There's no time to even say goodbye

Alllllright

Don't fear me child

Cuz there's nothing you can do

When I'm coming after you

Gonna be a long way

A long way from home

My gaze hold no pity

Allllright

As I walk through the silent city

Allllright

Too soon to be forgotten

Allllright

Well it's too late so keep on walkin'

Allllright

Over a moonlit desert

Alllright

I can see your face in mine

Alllright

I looked in the eyes of your father

Alllright

But nothing remains in the hands of time

Alllright

Don't fear me child

Cuz there's nothing you can do

When I'm coming after you

Gonna be a long way

A long way from home
