(Huh)

I'm looking out my window Feeling kinda blue I aint heard from my baby Did she find somebody new

So I called up her number And her number had changed So I climbed up to the mountain And I screamed out her name

I said hey, hey, hey
My, my, Loola-loo
Loola-loo don't leave me
I will do anything for you
Loola-loo you make me feel so fine
Loola-loo I need you
Don't take your love away
Loola-loo, oh woman don't make me cry
Don't make me cry

I stood out on the corner
I walked up and down the street
Looking for my Loola
With that smile so nice and sweet.

I'm not going to hide it
My love just keeps on growing
Cos she looks so good to me
Wether she's coming or she's going

I said hey, hey, hey
My, my, Loola-loo
Loola-loo don't leave me
I will do anything for you
Loola-loo you make me feel so fine
Loola-loo I need you
Don't take your love away
Loola-loo, oh woman don't make me cry
Don't make me cry

Well maybe she just needs some time alone Or maybe my little Loola's heart Has suddenly turned to stone

I cant give up on Loola
I've got to take a stand
So I wrote this little letter
And I gave to the postman
It said Baby, please call me
Please drop me a line
Cmon throw an old dog a bone
I need to know if you're still mine

I said hey, hey, hey, hey My, my, Loola-loo Loola-loo don't leave me I will do anything for you
Loola-loo you make me feel so fine
Loola-loo I need you
Don't take your love away
Loola-loo, oh woman don't make me cry
Don't make me cry

My, my, Loola-loo Loola loo My, my, Loola-loo
