

Remain Silent

Keb' Mo'

Don't stand there lyin', straight to my face
You not a lawyer, you got no case
And your alibi, it don't make sense
You're just a criminal, I got all the evidence

And they say the truth will set you free
But the less you say, the better off you'll be
You have the right to remain silent
You know you're guilty, don't even try it
Don't lie, I won't buy it
Just walk away and remain silent

I'm the judge, I'm the jury
Justice will be swift, there'll be no mercy
The punishment will fit the crime
One thing for sure, you're gon' do some time

And they say the truth will set you free
But the less you say, the better off you'll be
You have the right to remain silent
You know you're guilty, don't even try it
Don't lie, I won't buy it
Just walk away and remain silent

Anything you say, can and will be used against you
And you don't need anymore help, incriminatin' yourself

You have the right to remain silent
You know you're guilty, don't even try it
Don't lie, I won't buy it
Just walk away and remain silent

You have the right to remain silent
You know you're guilty, don't even try it
Don't lie, I won't buy it
Just walk away and remain silent

Yes, you got the right to remain silent
You know you're guilty, don't even try it
Just walk away and remain silentm, silent, silent
