VERSE:

edim7 ebdim7 cdim7 c#dim7
My Baby wrote me a letter
edim7 ebdim7 cdim7 c#dim7
She didn't call me on the phone edim7 edim7 cdim7 c#dim7
Five little words is all she wrote
See ya later I'm gone

VERSE:

She had no explanation
About why she had to go
Well I can't take a joke
But I can take a hint
She don't love me no more

CHORUS:

But if nobody loves you
f#m bm B7
And you feel like dust on an empty shelf just remember, You can love yourself

VERSE:

My mother says she loves me
But you know she could be jivin' too
And everybody's always criticizing everything that I do

VERSE:

I work 9 to 5, do the best I can try to please the boss
I bought a big ol' house and a brand new car and then he laid me off

CHORUS

VERSE:

Everytime I meet a lady
I wanna try to get to know Either I'm too small or she's too tall
she's rich and I'm poor

VERSE:

So I called my old friend Hazel Mae asked her out for a little date
She said, "I'm married now and I got three little kids, boy ya just a little too late."
