Necropolis

Keep of Kalessin

Adrift - Nomadic men Towards the land of no return To seek the knowledge of the gods

A distant journey Through the sun-baked deserts Where sandstone monuments are towering

Above the dunes the solar storms erupt Into the esoteric realms of day and night

Across red land Through scalding sand Yearning in the hearts of men

Above the tombs The city of the dead Necropolis

Into the valley of their kin They seek elysium for all Death is a mere phase of life

Depicted on the walls Funerary scripts depraved by time The epitaph of fallen kings

"Go tell the gods A fallen hero here within Ascended to another life"

"Upon this throne Of stone and bone This kingdom I will reign alone"
