

The Dragontower

Keep of Kalessin

Born king of the underworld
The heir to the land of fire
Reptilian majesty
Awaken your desire

Into the flames we march
To greet our newborn master
Into the flames we burn
To burn as slaves hereafter
Your seal is broken

Help me, to uncover our power
Save me, from your old covered lies
Grant me, the power of the dragontower
Give me, the mind to set us free

He is the eldest
His name has not been spoken
In the old tongue, for centuries
Not even whispered by the old ones

From the furthest shores
It's time to break the seal
Reptilian majesty
Your silence is broken

Help me, to uncover our power
Save me, from your old covered lies
Grant me, the power of the dragontower
Give me, the mind to set us free

Help me, to uncover our power
Save me, from your old covered lies
Grant me, the power of the dragontower
Give me, the mind to set us free
