

Runnin' Too Deep

Keith Richards

We scorch the earth
For all it's worth
Last night
You in ecstasy
Now you don't remember me

It's runnin' too deep
It's runnin' too deep for me

The sirens and the curfews
Through the night
Everybody's locked up tight
What's going on
It's been dark for much too long

Runnin' too deep
Runnin' too deep for me

If heaven loses face
What will take its place

We've torn the treasure from the land
Watched it turn to ashes in our hands
