You may be young but you're ready
-Ready to learn
You're not a litle girl, you're a woman
-Take my hand
Let me tell you baby
I'm yours for the taking
So you can
-Do as you please
Don't take my love for granted
You're all I
-I'll ever need
Hold me, in your arms
And never let me go

There's a right and a wrong way to love somebody There's a good and a bad way to love somebody You do me good

Don't play no silly games with me baby

-Oh no its just not my thing

All is need is for you to love me

-Hold me tight baby with the joy you can bring

Take me I'm yours

I'm willing

Hold me in your arms hey baby

-Don't wanna let you go

You, you're all I need in this world

You got to know

You better know

You better know right now baby
