

Heart Like Mine

Keith Urban

I watched out the window
As you drove away
But we got so much history, baby
Too much good love to throw away

I know I can be a headstrong man
Got a jealous streak a country mile wide
Its just that Im so damn scared of losing you
As youre fading out of sight

Ooh, oooh, I dont why I do this every time
Ooh, oooh, run the other way from a heart like mine

Im doing the same things
I saw my father do
Cause I was just a kid in the corner
Watching words as they turned black and blue

Im the son of a son of a headstrong man
So, defensive so full of foolish pride
But I just will not lose you, baby
And Im starting to realize

Ooh, oooh, I think I know why I do this every time
Ooh, oooh, run the other way from a heart like mine

I know the love that we got is good
Can I be a better man, yeah, I know I could Standing here in the middle of this moonlit road
I know just what I have to do

Ooh, oooh, Im runnin to ya fast as I can tonight
Ooh, oooh, gotta show you what its like, gotta show you what it s like
To be loved, so loved by a heart like mine
Gonna wrap my arms around you as strong as young desire
Cause for you it's all beating in a heart like mine
