

Standing Right in Front of You

Keith Urban

Out on the street corner
Just like every morning I sit here
And I watch you walk my way
And even though I don't know you
As you get closer I swear I feel
My heart start racing, aching
Maybe it's in my mind
And maybe I'm only dreaming
And I swear you catch my eye
As you walk on by
Oh why you gotta leave me so blue

Baby why can't you see
That I'm the only one for you
You could search the world over
But you'll never find another so true
Cause if you're looking for love
I'm standing right in front of you

I bet your heart, like mine
Has been broken by someone
We never should have given it to (oh no)
So we put up a wall to keep from falling so hard
It's so sad
Cause there's such good love inside
And I've been hoping that I might find
Someone who feels the same way
Someone to share my life
On this beautiful ride together
We could see it all through

Baby why can't you see
That I'm the only one for you
You could search the world over
But you'll never find another so true
Cause if you're looking for love
I'm standing right in front of you

So this morning I'm just going to walk up and say hello to you
Cause if given a choice between love and being alone
I know which one
I know which one I choose
And give me a chance
I'd be a better man for you (I believe I would)
And open your heart girl
Let me make your dreams come true

You can search the world over
But I can take it to the moon
Cause if you're looking for love
I'm standing right in front of you (yes I am)
Standing right in front of you
Open your eyes, I'm standing right in front of you
Just give me a chance baby
I'm standing right in front of you
