You've been talking like I ain't been doing it like I used to do
Tonight I'm gonna show you, show you, don't slack I ain't holding Nuthin' back, you bout to get it yeah the way you keep on calling
Me out
It's bout to be a showdown yeah, and I'm ready to throw down yeah
Imma tie my hair up, we bout to go head up, we gone mess this
Bed up, I hope you ready yeah

Imma make your body tap out, til you can't take it no more
Take it down to the floor, won't stop until I make your body tap
Out, you talking now but boy you will be wearing down, be banging on

The headboard, headboard, 1-2-3 be banging on the headboard, headboard
We been at it for a while now we throwing in the towel, body's shaking
Like it know it's time now
Now I got you right where I want you, you ain't fighting back cause you don't Wanna lose yeah what's your name now bae
It's just the beginning, we're far from finish
It's bout to be a showdown yeah, and I'm ready to throw down yeah
Imma tie my hair up, we bout to go head up, we gone mess this
Bed up, I hope you ready yeah

(It started on the counter), You know how we do it
(And now we on the bed), I'll backup what I said
You pulling on my hair, we'll touch every position until you Submit yeah it's all said, now right after we finish tell me I, tell me I am the winner

[Chorus]
