Everything You Wanted

I see the bags in the empty hallway I can tell that something has changed. I see the pain written over your face And i know i pushed you too far.

If you want to leave me, You must know one thing.

I could have given you everything you wanted Everything you needed.

I know there're times I've lost my mind I am told I'm only halfway But you were there In my thoughts, In my head In my heart Above the left side.

I know the time for us has past, But you must know one thing

I could have given you everything you wanted Everything you needed.

And i say, Dale dale I'm a deero I'm finding it hard to breathe (4x)

I could have given you everything you wanted Everything you needed.
