Keller Williams

I was there at Deer Creek back in 1995 I think it was June maybe July But Jerry was still alive All the kids in that parking lot They tore that fence down And I blamed them For the second show getting cancelled. I really wanted to go I saved up all of my dough I didn't go to any other shows And I got my tickets M.O.ed And I never missed a Deer Creek show From '89 to '95 I was happy just to be alive On my yearly Indiana vacation But that was cut short by a bunch of jealous, Party bashin', buzz thrashin', gate crashin', stinky bastards And if you're one of them And you hear this song Fuck you You cock sucking motherfucker Fuck You You cock sucking motherfucker Fuck You
