

Whole Lotta Woman

Kelly Clarkson

What you say?

(Girl, this my bad)

You ain't know? Texas women do it bigger

(What? Say it ain't so)

In the south, it get;s no realer, baby

Pot full of grits, I'm hotter than your mama's supper, boy

Better get with it

Better watch your mouth, I might burn you, boy

You goin', uh, downtown, gonna work

Good love like dessert

If you scared, go to church

Whoo-who, I'm a lover

Hold on tight, little country boy

I ain't no girl, I'm a boss with voice

All I'm needin' is a baby to love me

Like a warm biscuit on a Sunday morning

I got what you want, I'm aiming to please

I got what it takes, I sure got the means

I got what you want

Sugar, honey, iced tea

All eyes on me, oh, oh, baby

I'm a whole lotta woman

(From the way I walk and toss my hips)

I'm a whole lotta woman

(From the sound to my voice to the gloss on my lips)

I'm a whole lotta woman

(Anything I see, I want, I get)

I'm a strong, bad-ass chick with classic confidence, yeah

One time for the green

And rollin' like Tina

Lovin' hard ain't easy

Whoo-who, if you mean it

Hold on tight, little country boy

I ain't no girl, I'm a boss with orders

All I'm needin' is a baby to love me

I'm a warm biscuit on a Sunday morning

I got what you want, I'm aiming to please

I got what it takes, I sure got the means

I got what you want

Sugar, honey, iced tea

All eyes on me, oh, oh, baby

I'm a whole lotta woman

(From the way I walk and toss my hips)

I said, I'm a whole lotta woman

(From the sound to my voice to the gloss on my lips)

I'm a whole lotta woman

(Anything I see, I want, I get)

I'm a strong, bad-ass chick with classic confidence

Ain't no competition, babe

It's just can you keep up with me?

I can't do a thing about my wicked ways with gravity
Higher than the leaves, they fall from trees like D-O-double-Gs
I reside in Tennessee, but Texas still grows deep in me

I'm a whole lotta woman
(From the way I walk and toss my hips)
Hey, I'm a whole lotta woman
(From the sound to my voice to the gloss on my lips)
I said, I'm a whole lotta woman
(Anything I see I want, I get)
I'm a strong, bad-ass chick with classic confidence, (whoo!)

Come on!
Wait, do it again
