

Double-Decker Bus

The Kelly Family

Okay kids we're go for a ride Get on the bus, we're gonna have some fun

Get on the back and come along with us Get in the red double decker bus Stamp your feet and clap your hands Some Kelly kids are show to dance

We'll go through the whole wide world Just to meet you all one day You'll sing your song We'll sing our song as we drive along We'll sing down your street one day And we hope to hear you say You'll come along with us In our funny double decker bus

So tell the Poles and the Russians too The Kelly kids are coming to you And on to China and Japan Just to shake your hand

We'll go through the whole wide world Just to meet you all one day You'll sing your song We'll sing our song as we drive along We'll sing down your street one day And we hope to hear you say You'll come along with us In our funny double decker bus

Gonna see the ... and the eskimos Hope that one will rub my nose One I'll take will come with us In our big double decker bus

We'll go through the whole wide world Just to meet you all one day You'll sing your song We'll sing our song as we drive along We'll sing down your street one day And we hope to hear you say You'll come along with us In our funny double decker bus
