

I Will Be Your Bride

The Kelly Family

When I'm gone from here
Will you wait for me
When I'm far from here
Will you pray for me
Would you care for me
If I needed hospitality
Would you cry for me
If I were lying in bed
Lying in bed dying
Would you walk for me
If I had no feet
Would you talk for me
If I had no speech
Would you see for me
If I had no sight
Would you hear for me
If I couldn't hear
I couldn't hear anymore
She says

I will be your bride
Be there truly by your side
I will be your bride
I will give my fullest heart
Now that I must go
I know you'll wait for me
They're taking me to war
To cease the enemy
Heavens strength will grow
Within you and me
In crucial times it'll show
If we're bond as one

There's no limits life is long
There's no limits life goes on
There's no limits life is long
There's no boundaries
'cause life goes on
When I'm gone from here
Will you wait for me
When I'm far from here
Will you pray for me
Would you care for me
If I needed hospitality
Would you cry for me
If I were lying in bed
Lying in bed dying
She says

There's no limits life is long
