

The Children of Kosovo

The Kelly Family

I believe someone's out there who's gonna help me give a nameless
Child loving and care
I believe you are out there you're gonna help me give the Children tender loving care

So much hate has turned
To vengeance
All the laughter has turned
To crying
While the mothers lose their children
From war to war

I am hungry and I'm cold and I have no one to hold for my mother and my father are Dead and gone
Where do I belong

This children of Kosovo
Are crying for a helping hand The children of Kosovo
Are dreaming of a peaceful land

They have beaten my Older brother
They have torn away my sister
I'm afraid I want revenge
Is there no other way

Let's hold our hands tightly together
And think as one forever You and I can make a change for a better world
No more war Chorus
