

Get Right Or Get Left

Kelly Price

I really wanna stay but since you gave me the reason to
I'm walking out that door
Ain't no need to try, no more begging and pleading
'Cause we've been here before
This time it's really over
And there ain't no turning back for me
'Cause I gave you every chance
See we've been broken for far too long
And good days ain't coming back

See there had to be a time for you to pay for all your crimes
And it had to be a way
To make you to understand my pain
See I told you this before
The truth you still ignored
You didn't believe me when I said

There's no more words to say to make me wanna stay here
'Cause this time I'm really sure
I know you ain't gonna change
Won't stop your evil ways no
Love it should be pure
But I finally realize your kind of love is twisted
So we can never be, heyyyyyy
'Cause you had a good woman
And I know because I was your woman yes
But you were still too blind to see

See there had to come a time for you to pay for all your crime
And it had to be a way
To make you to understand my pain
See I told you this before
The truth you still ignored
You didn't believe me when I said

And I'm feeling no regrets
I'm getting stronger every step
My heart's been gone
Now my body's saying so long
So get out of my way (to the left, to the left)
Nothing you can say (to the left, ooohhh)
Get out of my way (to the left, to the left)
'Cause I'm leaving you today heyyyyyy

See there had to come a time for you to pay for all your crimes
And it had to be a way
To make you to understand my pain
So I told you this before
The truth you still ignored
You didn't believe me when I said

So I hold my high up high
I'm done with tears, so I won't cry
You didn't hear me when I said

It ain't right, so I left

You didn't hear me

All the warnings that I gave you baby

You didn't heed my warnings so this is what I say

It's time for me to go 'cause you gave me the reason to walk right out the door baby

You didn't heed my warning

You didn't hear me when I said

I tried to tell you

It ain't right, so I left
