

I Live Here Now

Kelly Price

She couldn't take it anymore
So she got to steppin' out the door
So many years you beat her down
Now you've got another one
Better straighten up
There's a new girl in town

I live here now
The other woman had to leave
'Cause she was trippin'
Now the right one has your keys
I live here now
And I'll never take from you the things she took
That just won't do

So many years she lived for you
So many tears she cried them too (she wet the pillow)
So many memories that won't erase yes
But she's never comin' back
Don't you look for her
'Cause I've taken her place

I can't be that woman who let you break her down
I can't be that woman who let you make her frown
'Cause now I see that I deserve better than you've given me
And more ??; I deserve more, I deserve more!
