Love Sets You Free

Yeah When peeps give you love There's nothing in this world That could set you free, yeah Feel me? (Def Soul) Yo G

Here I am all alone Can't let you get the best of me (Gotta let you know, love sets you free)

And these walls closing in Closing in slowly, yeah

But ain't no way they can hold me down I won't allow it Cause I believe, yeah

I believe that love Love sets you free And it will take you higher, higher If you believe, oh yeah Kelly do you know?

Do you know what it's like When shackles are on your feet You're facing a hurricane One more chapter in your journey, yeah Break through darkness in my life Like sunshine (Yeah) Now I believe (I believe baby) Now I believe that love (yeah)

Love will set you free I know it's gonna take you higher If you believe You just believe And you will receive

I opened up with my heart There was no doubt That hatred pulls you in And love pulls you out If you believe in faith you will never fall Love will take you higher than any wall

Love will set you free (If you believe in love) Higher (It will take you higher) If you just believe (And higher, oh love, love, love, love, love) Set you free

Love (Believe it) Sets you free (Love will set you free) Kelly Price

Higher (We're gonna take you higher, yeah yeah) Just believe (Love will, oh oh yeah) If you just believe

Only love can set you free Love will be everything you need A little faith, charity If you just believe

Open up, let it in It will change everything, really Love is life, love is free If you only just believe

Only love can set you free Love is free, let it be A little faith, charity If you just believe

Open up, let it in It can change everything, really Love is life, love is free If you only just believe (Love sets you free)
