

Reason To Believe

Kelly Willis

Now my dreams can all come true
An' now my life can follow through
Suddenly it's all so clear
There's not a thing that I should fear

Who'd have thought that it would start
With the beating of your heart
That the world would stop for me
And show me love like it should be

Holdin' your hand in mine
Catchin' my breath each time
Gazin' up at the stars
Now they don't seem so far

Holdin' your hand in mine
Catchin' my breath each time
Gazin' up at the stars
Now they don't seem so far

Spread the news that I'm alive
'Cause I was born in your blue eyes
Good things were meant for me
Now I've a reason to believe

Yeah, good things were meant for me
Oh, I believe yes, I believe
