

Everything's Fine

Kemopetrol

Everything's fine
Everything's right
Everything's big, just not as big as it used to be
'Cause I'm growing now, learning how
This one is broker
This one's clinging to words once spoken

Everything's silent
Everything's just the way it is everyday
Everything's fine
Everything's fine

I used to feel you inside of me
But it's just a image now of somebody I wanted to be
And I'm older now, young anyhow
This one's a dreamer
This one's a crown-hoaded deceiver

Everything's silent
Everything's just the way it is everyday
Everything's fine
Everything's fine
