

Private Encore

Kemopetrol

"She's lost her mind"
Hear the thoughts of the blind
For I'm dancing with someone
They cannot seem to find
But why should I care
You're with me everywhere
And we sway to the soundwaves
Ringing in the air

I will meet you at the door
Forever and ever more
You will take me to the floor
Forever and ever more
It will be just like before
Forever and ever more
In our own private encore
Forever and ever more

You stay the same
Full of life like a flame
And the silence between us
As beautiful as rain
