

Second Chance

Kemuri

Are we still the same?
or are we so different now?
Can you see my eyes are sayin' somethin' silently?

You wanna run but I kinda wanna walk
I'll watch you from behind but will you look back?
Second chance, you took,
Second chance, I didn't take,
Would it mean that much to you?
Can you hear my voice?

You will be seeing me behind,
Would you stop and wait for me sometimes
Deep breath reminds me of the fact that I've wasted so much but it's too late...

Never knew it's you who stands so far away always thought that you were too close to see
Second Chance, happened once
Second Chance, happened once
Will there be another chance
I wanna get out of here!!

You will be seeing me behind,
Would you stop and wait for me sometimes
Deep breath reminds me of the fact
that I've wasted so much but it's too late...
too late to go back...

Are we still the same?
or are we so different now?
Can you see my eyes are sayin' somethin' silently?

Tell me are you still my friend
Tell me there's another chance
Tell me we are still the same
Don't leave me in this silence...

I need another chance...

I need another chance...
