

Not Afraid To Be Me

Kendall Payne

I've got a new way of living now a little less of a lot
A little more of nothing
Thought you might have seen the change in me
Little quicker to listen little slower to speak

I was wrong when I said I was strong I am weak and I need
All that you have to give
I cannot keep the voices quiet inside
Hear them sing hear the scream, at least I know I'm alive

Now I am meeting myself and I am liking what I see
I am not afraid anymore Not afraid to be bored
Not afraid to be me

Every battle leads to another war
Every day I'm reminded of what I'm fighting for It's never easy and it's never the same
But it's worth all I've got and so I'll give it again

Now I don't know why, I don't know why
But it makes me want to cry, cry

I am meeting myself and I am ready to see
Truth can break our heart that is when it will start
To set us free
