

She Needs Me

Kendrick Lamar

One time, reportin' live, Compton California

She go to work, she go to school,
Her body's smooth, no tattoos,
Type a girl that'll make your mother feel comfortable,
My pops love her too, she's compatible,
She's independent, she handle her business,
She believe in God and no other religions...
She's never in competition
When it comes to her friends
She's dependable; she set her own trends
A confidant, a mediator, so sweet, every flavor
Just a conversation with her doing you a favor,
Look at her hips, I want to be a pager...
Conservative, affirmative
Actually she reluctant to sweats and bobby pins
The beauty of her, a blind man can see,
A true queen and she needs me.
She needs me, she needs me
She needs me, she needs me
The beauty of her, swear to God a blind man can see,
A true queen and she needs me.

That girl is smokin'
Can't believe that I'm her focus
I'd say she got me open
And together we are rollercoastin'

Five years later, an accountant major
Work at a firm, abundance of paper
She got a career, she look in the rear,
You were there behind her Mercedes that she could steer
Call her boss, executive meetings,
Consecutive trips, vacational weekends
Dior reekin' to her Prada dress
Probably the only product of a pure success
Got a promotion, now she owns the building
Headed to the top like she own the building
Real estate, property, she order tender stake
Only one mouth to feed
Funding reducing
Invested in some stock
I wonder what she put in to buy the restaurant
Oh what a girl how great life can be
Even though she got the world, she needs me
She needs me, she needs me
She needs me, she needs me
Oh what a girl, what a hell life can be
Even though she got the world, she needs me

That girl is smokin'
Can't believe that I'm her focus
I'd say she got me open
And together we are rollercoastin'

We lose touch, we separated, years pass, I'm out dated
She's dating one of Hollywood's famous entertainers, Denzel good

Paparazzi spot 'em out shopping, Tuesday morning brunch, Benny Honda's
Tabloids paint a picture of a perfect couple
Headline reads when a famous actor loves you, Emmy Awards, Academy too
On the red carpet, dress matching his suit, she holding his arm
She waves at her moms and wave at the world,
Got the world in her palms
Head in the clouds, star gazing,
Cart her on the stage, a proposal was waiting
He bent down, got on one knee,
She looked him in the eye and said she needs me
She needs me, she needs me, she needs me, she needs me
Even if we seem to separate, eventually it'll come to pass, she'll need me

That girl is smokin'
Can't believe that I'm her focus
I'd say she got me open
And together we are rollercoastin'
