

Man Fading

Kenna

I need to be brilliant, electric
I wanted to be natural
This God should be fantastic
Let's start a revolution, a true revolution
I haven't felt the same
Since I arrived, I haven't slept a wink

I'm just a man fading
I've been a little bit jaded
Everybody wants to get on
The neon lights have got it all

I'm living a sensation
Walk inside invasions
Nobody wants to really know
The neon lights have got it all
The neon lights

I need to be elected, perfected
Needs beyond the blue
Feel the satisfaction
I want to be a light source, a blaring night force
I haven't felt the same
Since I arrived I haven't slept a wink

And this is how it starts
Before we lose it all
I know we're not coming
God knows when I'm gone

I'm just a man fading
I've been a little bit jaded
Everybody wants to get on
The neon lights have got it all

I'm living a sensation
Walk inside invasions
Nobody wants to really know
The neon lights have got it all
The neon lights

Well, this is how it starts
Before we lose it all
I know we're not coming
God knows when I'm gone

I'm just a man fading
I've been a little bit jaded
Everybody wants to get on
The neon lights have got it all

I'm living a sensation
Walk inside invasions
The neon lights have got it all

I'm just a man fading

I've been a little bit jaded

I'm living a sensation
The neon lights have got it all
The neon lights
