Man Fading

I need to be brilliant, electric I wanted to be natural This God should be fantastic Let's start a revolution, a true revolution I haven't felt the same Since I arrived, I haven't slept a wink

I'm just a man fading I've been a little bit jaded Everybody wants to get on The neon lights have got it all

I'm living a sensation Walk inside invasions Nobody wants to really know The neon lights have got it all The neon lights

I need to be elected, perfected Needs beyond the blue Feel the satisfaction I want to be a light source, a blaring night force I haven't felt the same Since I arrived I haven't slept a wink

And this is how it starts Before we lose it all I know we're not coming God knows when I'm gone

I'm just a man fading I've been a little bit jaded Everybody wants to get on The neon lights have got it all

I'm living a sensation Walk inside invasions Nobody wants to really know The neon lights have got it all The neon lights

Well, this is how it starts Before we lose it all I know we're not coming God knows when I'm gone

I'm just a man fading I've been a little bit jaded Everybody wants to get on The neon lights have got it all

I'm living a sensation Walk inside invasions Nobody wants to really know The neon lights have got it all

I'm just a man fading
