

Yeah, woohoo, oohoo

I live for my independence
Live by my belief
Yeah, I live with my intentions
Careful falling for me

See I've come to a new conclusion
The folly in love and youth
Yeah, I've made my decision
Call it policy or truth, when I say

I say, "Young love will only break your heart"
I say, "Nothing's gonna change me"

Woohoo, oohoo, come on, yeah
Woohoo, oohoo

Here she comes with the hunger
Here she comes with desire
Here she comes to pull me under
Burning inside

Yeah I've come to a new conclusion
The folly of love and youth
Yeah, I've made my decision
Call it policy or truth, when I say

I say, "Young love will only break your heart"
I say, "Nothing's gonna change me"
I say, "Young love will only break your heart"
I say, "Nothing's gonna, nothing's gonna change me"

Woohoo, oohhoo, come one, yeah
Woohoo, oohhoo

When will the sirens call?
Here she comes, yeah, here she comes
Paradise, I say
Here she comes, yeah, here she comes
Paradise

When will the sirens call?
Here she comes, yeah, here she comes
Paradise, I say
Here she comes, yeah, here she comes
Paradise

I say, "Young love will only break your heart"
I say, "Nothing's gonna change me"
I say, "Young love will only break your heart"
I say, "Nothing's gonna, nothing's gonna change me"

Nothing's gonna change me
Nothing's gonna change me
Young love, this is my policy, yeah
