

Marley

Kenny Chesney

I've seen so many places and so many faces,
Left behind so many traces of my soul.
I carry all these voices with the ringing in my ears,
Some girl's tears and the rhythm of the road.
Sometimes my life takes more than I can give.
That's when I gotta go

Where no one's around
But the silence and the sound
Of "Three Little Birds" for company.
I got a sip of something strong,
A secondhand "Old Man and the Sea",
Out here with me,
Me and Marley,
Me and Marley

God knows I love my life and I thank Him every night
But sometimes I feel the knife of responsibility.
And the struggle and the strife, what's wrong and what's right
Has got me searching for the light and my place of peace.

Where no one's around
But the silence and the sound
Of "Three Little Birds" for company.
I got a sip of something strong,
A secondhand "Old Man and the Sea",
Out here with me,
Me and Marley,
Me and Marley

We all live in chaos, noise and negativity
But I still believe in one love bigger than you and me,
You and me,
You and me and Marley,
You and me and Marley

I hear redemption's song,
A whisper on the sea,
Out here with me,
Out here with me,
Me and Marley,
Me and Marley,
Me and Marley,
Me and Marley

I hear redemption's song,
Me and Marley,
Me and Marley
