If you see her down at a local bar Showin' all the signs of a lonely heart Don't you be concerned There ain't nothin' wrong It's not her fault She gets that way when I'm gone

If she's on the floor for a dance or two Don't mean she's lookin' for a rendevous She'll only be in his arms
'Til the end of the song
There's no harm done
She gets that way when I'm gone

She gets that way but I understand
I know in her heart that I'm her only man
And I can't stand to think of her home all alone

So I really don't mind if she paints the town red What we feel inside doesn't have to be said It's a matter of trust And I know our love is strong That's why I don't worry none She gets that way when I'm gone

She gets a little restless but I don't mind 'Cause a woman like her Surely deserves to have herself a real good time

So I really don't mind if she paints the town red What we feel inside doesn't have to be said It's a matter of trust And I know our love is strong That's why I don't worry none She gets that way when I'm gone

No it's not her fault She gets that way when I'm gone

No there's no harm done
She gets that way when I'm gone
